STATE REPRESENTATIVE CONKLIN ANNOUNCES
RE-ELECTION CAMPAIGN

--Centre County State Representative Scott Conklin announced today that he is seeking re-election to his House seat in the 77th district. Conklin said he wants to continue to fight for the reform agenda and looks forward to the challenges ahead.

“We have a lot of things to finish, and it’s going to take a lot of hard work,” Conklin said. “We have to make our government more open for everyone, and we have to look at healthcare for every Pennsylvanian.” <audio attached – for problems with attachments, please visit www.ScottConklin.com/media.php to download>

While there is much to do, Representative Conklin is pleased with what already has been done.

“I’m proud of some of the legislation I have been able to put through,” Conklin said. “We have been able to give ongoing training for principals in schools to understand how important it is to communicate with the public; we have been able to put a bill through for text messaging on universities; we’ve looked at ways to keep our universities safer for our young people by having early assault awareness.” <audio attached – for problems with attachments, please visit www.ScottConklin.com/media.php to download>

Conklin resides in Philipsburg with his wife Terri and son Spencer.
